PREFACE.

Genealogical — 7.50

THE two Register Books of which the following pages are a copy are chiefly interesting from the unusually large area they cover, the ancient parish of Edwinstow having embraced the chapelries of Ollerton, Perlethorpe, and Carburton, and the townships of Rufford, Clipston, and Budby. Although the three former have separate Registers a good many entries of their inhabitants will be found in the books of the mother church.

Vol. I. is a small folio of paper in a very dilapidated condition, and evidently written throughout by the parish clerk. The first six leaves are loose, and it would be impossible to join them together without injuring the writing upon them. This book contains entries from 1634 to 1701, and is no doubt the original paper Register from which the first portion of Vol. II. has been transcribed in accordance with the Act of Parliament.

Vol. II. consists partly of parchment and partly of paper, and is an oblong folio of the usual size, and from its commencement to 1701 is a transcript of Vol. I. From 1702 to 1727 it appears to be a transcript of some book now lost, and from that time to its conclusion in 1758 the original register of the parish. There are twenty leaves of parchment containing entries from 1640—41, 1653—1661, and 1682—1689, probably a portion only of the original parchment book, the rest is of paper beginning in 1693, and is continuous to 1758. So far as it is a transcript of Vol. I. I have supplied in italics such omissions and variations as it has enabled me to add, and from the year 1701 have transcribed it in its entirety, calling it Vol. II. In other cases in which italics are used in these pages they serve to indicate that owing to the illegibility of the MS. I am doubtful of the correct reading of the words, and a ? is usually appended to them. In the foot-notes the words "in transcript" refer to this volume. The entries in it are not unfrequently in duplicate, and very contradictory both as to names and dates. It seems to have been written by exceedingly careless and illiterate scribes, and but little credence can be given to the dates of the events recorded. Where one volume contradicts the other in matter of date I have given the alternative date in brackets.

There are certain scribbles in the books I have not considered it worth while to transcribe, as they have nothing to do with the Register; page 1 of Vol. I. is an example, the only fact worth noting on it being that in 1635 there were fourteen score communicants in the town, which, as taking the sacrament was at that time obligatory, gives us an idea of the number of the adult population, viz., 280.

The scribes who wrote the Register seem from the entries they made for their own glorification to have been named Emley, and to have succeeded each other in the office of parish clerk. It does not appear, as is usual, customary for the incumbent of the living to have kept it; perhaps it was inconvenient, as in 1659 a couple were married by Mr. Bowes, then vicar, at his house, "Because Bailiffs was in Towne to arrest y<sup>e</sup> vica'." Michael Emley, senior, was chosen parish clerk in 1632 (p. 1), he was appointed register for the Commonwealth period (p. 18), and died in 1671 (p. 47), when George Emley, his son, succeeded him. He died in February, 1679-80, and was followed by his son George—a George Emley, probably this man, was buried in 1687.

Besides the two volumes already mentioned, there are two folio leaves of paper, apparently the beginning of a book not now extant. These are noticed at p. 135.

For permission to transcribe these books my thanks are due to the Rev. Henry Telford Hayman, B.A., Vicar of Edwinstowe; and for the Monumental Inscriptions in the Church and Churchyard, and the extracts from the more recent Registers, to Cecil G. Savile Foljambe, Esq., M.P., of Cockglode, whose accurate copies and extensive local knowledge have added very much to the value of this book; and it may not be deemed out of place to give due acknowledgment to Mr. Robert White, the publisher, whose public spirit in undertaking the responsibility of issuing it deserves the thanks of all interested in Nottinghamshire genealogy, and induces me to hope that this may be the forerunner of other Nottinghamshire Parish Registers of greater historical interest.

GEORGE W. MARSHALL.

This Ellinor Riggs it may be sayde, & much more, known to me
 That she was a woman w<sup>ch</sup> was indued wth much divinitie,
 And yet our god as he had decreed her health, & life soon stayde therefore good frends let vs p'vide that wee be not afrayd.
 To dye to change this Life we must but time vncertayne is Most holy god infuse ou<sup>r</sup> harts with thine eternall bliss.

these was her lines to her god in her great paynes of death.

Lord take from me this scourg and plague
 I can them not withstand

I faynt & pine away for fear of thy most hevy hand.

These Lines that writ thy Servant Lord but a sinfull sinner is yet by Christ Jesus my soule shall have pardon for mercye is.}

Michaell Emley seni<sup>r</sup> septem' 6th 1650.

There are no entries for the year 1649, and no baptisms for 1650. A leaf of the Register at this period is probably wanting. The next leaf consists of memoranda in the handwriting of Michael Emley, the clerk, from which by his signature to blank precedents for entering Commonwealth marriages it appears that he was appointed Registrar at that period. As specimens of the other entries on this leaf I give the following :

Fac bene dum vivis post mortem vivere si vis

There are, besides the two books of which the contents form the preceding pages, two folio leaves of paper, apparently the beginning of a book not now extant, or more probably the commencement of one never completed. They contain the following:—

- Page 1. A Register Booke of Mariages Births & Burialls According to an Act of Parlament And Beginning vpon the 30th day of Septembar, 1653, for Edwinstow, Clipston, & Buddie.
- Page 2. Robert Rogers Baptized 21th of March 1603.

 John the sonne of Edwa. Stonnes and Dorathie his Wife Born the second Day of June 1660. de Clipston.
- Page 3. Michaell Emley seni<sup>r</sup> Baptized at Kneesall in the Countye of Nottingham vppon the seaventh day of december Ann. Dom. 1605. And now parrish Register for Edwinstow, etc., 1655.

Then follow:—

- Entry of birth of Alice Ancliff 1647.<sup>1</sup>
 „ „ John s. Gilbert Lord Houghton.
 „ „ Will<sup>m</sup> s. Robert Baker.
 „ „ Mary d. Tho. Levers.
 „ „ Will<sup>m</sup> s. John Bell.
 „ „ Joseph s. Joseph Templeman.

“ Be it remembred that Richard Paitfield sonne of Tho. Paitfield & Ales his wife was Baptized vpon the 14th day of february Ann. d'ni 1645 & also the daughter Elizabeth of y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>d</sup> Tho. & Ales her mother Baptized on the seaventh of January 1643 by informacon of there father Tho. It will be seen that the above supplies the defects in an entry before.

Page 4. No months so Good But it hath sumdayes as bad no Relme so True that neuer Tretour had but as the fifth Day hereof Doth fatoul sing of bloody men that sought to slay there King.

The sun do set the sun do Rise againe
The Day Doth Breake the Day doth Close againe once set our son againe it Rise . . .
neuer once Closed this day of life it is night to us for Euer.

Time wasteth yeares Dayes months and hours,
Time kills the Greenest herbs and sweetest flowers
By time our fathers to there period Came and to their haire be mesured out the same how Ere you vse him still he keepes his way and should you ask him he'd would Refuse to stay.

<sup>1</sup> Second son of Sir William Boothby, 8th Bart. (and Rafela his wife, daughter of Don Miguel Del Gado, of Mahon, in the Island of Minorca), then living at Edwinstowe, in a house since pulled down, but which stood in the lawn now belonging to Edwinstowe House, the residence of L. Rolleston, Esq., just West of the bridge over the River Maun. This son entered the Church, and was Rector of Kirkby in Ashfield. See the baptism of his eldest son, 4 April, 1818.

<sup>2</sup> Third son of Sir William Boothby, 8th Bart., and Rafela, his wife. He served in the Royal Engineers, and at 23 years of age lost a leg at the battle of Talavera, and was taken prisoner by the French, but after a time he was exchanged, and eventually graduated at Oxford. Entered Holy Orders and became Prebendary of Southwell and Vicar of Sutterton, co. Linc. He married Marianne, daughter of the Rev. Basil Berridge, of Algarkirk, co. Linc., and died in 1846. His eldest son, the Rev. William Henry Boothby, is now (1891) vicar of Hawkesbury, co. Glouc. His second son, Evelyn, who died 1874, was Rector of Whitwell, co. Derby, near Worksop, and his eldest daughter married her cousin, Sir Brooke Boothby, 10th Bart. See also entry of baptism of his 3rd son, Reginald Fitzhenry, 17 January, 1829.

And also Mary his Wife who departed this Life
the 2<sup>d</sup> day of Feb:<sup>y</sup> 1746.
In the 76th Year of her Age.

11. On a white marble slab, 44 in. long, with a  $4\frac{1}{2}$  in. border of bluish grey marble all round it, next to, and immediately North of No. 10, is an inscription in fourteen lines to the memory of John Crump and of Charles-Finch Crump, two children of Thomas Crump, Esq., of Newnham on Severn, in Gloucestershire, who died of a fever at Thoresby, in 1735-1736. Most of the inscription is covered by the Choir Stalls. See page 112.

Colonel the Hon. Savile Henry Lumley of Cockglode and Mary Henrietta his wife (a tablet to whose memory has been mentioned on the South wall of the Chancel) are buried in a vault in the centre of the Chancel just East of the Chancel Arch.

Mrs. Lumley's sister, Miss Katherine Tahourdin (whose tablet is on the North wall of the Chancel), was buried at Elberton in Gloucestershire.

And John 7th Earl of Scarborough and his wife, who lived at Edwinstowe Hall, are buried at Saxby in Lincolnshire.

12. In the Nave, in the centre, just West of the Chancel Arch, is a Freestone slab with this inscription :

THE REV<sup>D</sup> JOHN GORDON . M . A .
(Vicar of Edwinstowe)
 DIED MAY 7TH 1843;
 AGED 49 YEARS.

13. A similar slab immediately East of the last :

ALSO SARAH GORDON,
the Wife of
 THE REV<sup>D</sup> JOHN GORDON, who died February 1ST 1850;
 AGED 58 YEARS.

14. A slab next West of No. 12, the inscription much worn and almost illegible :

15. Next West of No. 14 is a slab with : "A . . . . DEC 27 1695" in three lines. Probably Mrs. Ann Petifer or Peatfield, see p. 70.

16. On a slab next West of No. 15 :

On this stone (the total length of which is 5 ft. 5 in.) is a curious mark like the print of a donkey's hoof impressed in the stone, which has given rise to various stories and suppositions amongst the inhabitants. This mark is 16 in. from the bottom of the slab, and 2 in. from its Northern edge. The hoof mark is  $3\frac{1}{4}$  in. long, and the same width at its widest part.

17. On a large slab in the Nave immediately West of No. 16 there have been two inscriptions side by side, with an hour glass with serpent (emblem of eternity) and bones carved above that on the left hand side, whilst the inscription on the right is worn away, and the subject carved above it is much worn. The left hand inscription is also much worn away :

 this Stone are deposited the Remains of IOHN
BRISTOWE Esq<sup>r</sup>;
 who died the 23rd
 of March 1775 <sup>3</sup>

24. A slab next West of the last is cut in half, but the inscription is entirely on the upper portion, which is opposite the cross gangway and next the Ward recessed monument :

In Memory of Bridget the
WIFE of IOHN
BRISTOWE Esq<sup>r</sup>;
 who died the 2<sup>d</sup> of October 1786

25. A slab next West of the last :

the Remains of lie deposited

 Under this Stone

<sup>2</sup> This date was originally cut 1776, and was altered to 1786 afterwards.

26. On a white stone next West of the last is following inscription in Italic characters :

*This Place I judge to be the best
To lay my Bones where the<sup>1</sup> may rest
Could I but speak one word then I Would Say my Friends Prepare to Die*

*Part of the slab

Year of his Age*

- 27 and 28. Two fragments of slabs at the extreme West end of North Aisle, next West of No. 26. Lines round them but remains of inscriptions illegible.
29. In the North Aisle in the cross gangway, and next South of No. 24, on a slab :

Beneath
this Stone lieth the Remains of Harriott Bristowe
the Wife of WILLIAM BRISTOWE Attorney at Law London who died the 27 Day of August 1793 in the 61 Year of her Age

30. At the West end of the South Aisle, nearly under the West window, is a slab with this inscription :

Beneath this Stone lies Interr'd
Mr JOHN CLEAVER of CARBURTON
Who died the 23<sup>d</sup><sup>2</sup> of October 1779
Aged 68 Years

31. On a slab just to the right as you go to the South door in the South Aisle, is this inscription :

GRACE BRACYE WAS BVRIED THE SECOND
OF APRILL : A : D : 1661 ☾

<sup>2</sup> The tablet on the wall above says he died on the 25th October, but the figures are clear as here given, and in both cases.

The step down into the Church from the South Porch is formed by a stone coffin lid with a much worn floriated cross upon it.

32. Halfway down the South Aisle is a slab with a Greek pattern border round it, and this inscription, the letters filled in white :

UNDERNEATH are deposited the Remains of

There are two large slabs in the centre of this Porch, but the inscriptions are quite worn away.

Stained Glass in Edwinstowe Church.

1. A few small fragments of 14th century glass in the tracery of the Eastern-most window of the North Aisle.
2. The West window in the tower, a lancet, is filled with stained glass of geometrical design, with the Paschal Lamb above and a cross below.
3. The three-light East window of the Chancel was filled with stained glass some twenty-five years ago by Miss Cutts, afterwards Mrs. Symington, to the memory of her uncle, Mr. Cutts, who had occupied the South Farm at Carburton. The subjects are: The Last Supper, the Crucifixion, and the Resurrection. There is no memorial inscription.
4. The two-light South window of the Chancel is filled with stained glass to the memory of the late Mrs. Cecil Foljambe, the first wife of Mr. Cecil Foljambe of Cockglode. The work was executed by Messrs. Heaton, Butler, and Bayne, of 14, Garrick Street, Covent Garden, London. The inscription on the label is as follows:

· IN · MEMORY · OF · LOUISA · BLANCHE · THE · BELOVED · WIFE · OF ·
 · CECIL · G · SAVILE · FOLJAMBE · WHO · DIED · 7TH · OCTR · 1871 ·
 · ALSO · OF · FREDERICK · COMPTON · SAVILE · FOLJAMBE ·
 · HER · 2ND · SON · WHO · DIED · 21ST · AVGVST · 1871 ·

And immediately beneath it is a brass, 3 ft. 5 $\frac{3}{4}$  in. long by 10 in. wide, on black marble,  $\frac{3}{4}$  in. wide, executed by Jas. Forsyth Esq., Sculptor (of the Studios, Finchley New Road, and 49, Baker Street) with this inscription:

IN MEMORY OF LOUISA BLANCHE THE BELOVED WIFE OF CECIL

The Royal Arms are over the Chancel Arch.

Inscriptions on Edwinstowe Church Bells.

The three old bells were recast in 1889. The two bells weighing respectively 4 cwt. 0 q. 4 lb., and 3 cwt. 1 q. 7 lb. bore this inscription :

1752  THO HEDDERLY FOVNDER  ROGER

OLDHAM C W

And the bell weighing 5 cwt. 0 q. 18 lb. :

GOD  SAVE  HIS  CHURCH  1662

A peal of six bells by Messrs. Mears and Stainbank, of 267, Whitechapel Road, London, was substituted for them. On the five smaller bells of this new peal the only inscription is the founders' name, but on the tenor bell was cast the following :

These six Bells were erected by public subscription. A.D. 1889.

Rev. Henry Telford Hayman, Vicar

John Thomas Bullivant. } Churchwardens.

Edgar Gibbons. }

"My sound it is all men to call

To serve the Lord, both great and small."

This awful Monitor to Mans Security,
RICHARD NEIL
who after having brav'd
The boisterous Billows of the Bifcan Shore,
The gaping Terrors of the rude Atlantic,
And fulminating Wrath of haughty France.
In Fights victorious
at 32<sup>1</sup> in Vital Plenitude,
And the Meridian of welllearned Friendships.
By some disastrous unforeseen Event
Yielded his Social Life
To the Minutia of his Element in Thoresby Lake.
As did the Partner of his fleeting Breath
JOHN BIRDSALL of youthful 28 but juft immerfd
in Joys hymenial,
Anxious to meet his lov'd expecting Bride was too arrested by the liquid Wave.
Alike deferving and alike belov'd fell two lamented Youths
Together in one unpropitious Night
the 29 of Jan<sup>y</sup> 1800,
and this Earth

Letterpress and Lithographic

—✧—PRINTER—✧—

WORKSOP, † NOTTS.

BEGS to offer his services to gentlemen contemplating the production of Local, County, or Family Histories, Privately Printed Books, Pedigrees, Church Registers, or any other description of printing requiring the exercise of taste and special care. His office contains a most extensive assortment of Old Style and other appropriate Types, including Greek, Hebrew, Domesday, special Initial Letters, Headpieces, &c., suitable for every description of work.

Every department of Letterpress and Lithographic Printing is executed on the premises, and under his personal and constant supervision, and this with the long experience R.W. has had, and the class of work which issues from his press, will, it is presumed, ensure his patrons special advantages.

Illustrations for works printed at his Press are executed under his own superintendence, and printed with the greatest care.

Special attention is devoted to the highest class of woodcut work.

The earliest Church Registers printed verbatim et literatim direct from the originals, without transcribing, if required.

ROBERT WHITE having an extensive Antiquarian and Topographical Library, he can render to authors of works on these subjects special assistance in the verification of extracts, &c.

He will be glad to supply estimates and advice to authors, and in some cases to take upon himself the entire cost of printing their works.

Manuscripts carefully prepared for the Press.

NOTICES OF R. W.'S PRINTING

"The printing, executed at Worksop, is equal to the best London work."—The Bookseller.

"The typography of the volume is faultlessly beautiful."—The Art Journal.

"My compliments to your printer; he has done his work admirably."—F. J. Furnival.

"You must allow me to express my unqualified admiration, not only of the contents of the volume, but of its typographical execution, of which you may be justly proud."—Colonel Chester.

"A masterpiece of art."—The Reliquary.

"The Latin and contractions defy my search for blots and blunders." . . .
"With best wishes for an abundance of work of this kind, for which you have all the requisites."

"Noted for the good taste and accuracy, as well as the technical excellence of his productions." . . . "The execution of every detail of composition and presswork is as near perfection as it is possible to attain; higher praise could not be given."—The British Printer.

For, truly, human history, as it has been hitherto usually composed, has been too often written as if human chronicles ought to detail only the deeds of camps and courts—as if the number of men murdered on particular battle-fields, and the intrigues and treasons perpetrated in royal and lordly antechambers, were the sum total of actual knowledge which it was of any moment to transmit from one generation of men to another. In gathering, however, from the records of the past his materials for the true philosophy of history, the archæologist finds,—and is now teaching the public to find,—as great an attraction in studying the arts of peace as in studying the arts of war; for in his eyes the life and thoughts and faith of the merchant, and craftsman, and churl, are as important as those of the knight, and nobleman, and prince—with him the peasant is as grand and as genuine a piece of antiquity as the king.

Small in extent, scant in population, and spare in purse, as Scotland confessedly is, yet, in the cultivation of Archæology she has in these modern times by no means lagged behind the other and greater kingdoms of Europe. This observation is attested by the rich and valuable

The same fact is attested also by the highly valuable character of the systematic works on Scottish Archæology which have been published of late years by some of our colleagues, such as the masterly

THE FOREGOING PAGE CORRECTED.

“You who throughout your long and varied life have steadfastly believed in the Christian’s GOD, and before men have professed your devout thankfulness for many mercies vouchsafed to you, will better understand than many others the feelings which animate me when I find myself back again in civilization, uninjured in life or health, after passing through so many stormy and distressful periods.

“Constrained at the darkest hour to humbly confess that without GOD’S help I was helpless, I vowed a vow in the forest solitudes that I would confess his aid before men. A silence as of death was round about me; it was midnight; I was weakened by illness, prostrated with fatigue, and worn with anxiety for my white and black companions, whose fate was a mystery. In this physical and mental distress, I besought GOD to give me back my people. Nine hours later we were exulting with a rapturous joy. In full view of all was the crimson flag with the crescent, and beneath its waving folds was the long-lost rear column.”

18½ FUNERAL OF CAPTAIN ALEXANDER.— On Tuesday the <sup>2 Feb 1891</sup> remains of the late Captain James Fane Alexander, of Edwinstowe Hall, were interred in the churchyard. In spite of the very inclement weather which prevailed, a very large number of the surrounding gentry and tradesmen were present. The coffin, which was of polished oak, with massive silver fittings, was placed in the chancel of the church on Monday. The wreaths and crosses, composed of the choicest flowers and ferns, were tastefully arranged on the coffin. The service was taken by the vicar (the Rev. H. T. Hayman), assisted by the Rev. R. Fitzherbert, Warsop, and the coffin was borne by the outdoor servants to the grave, which had been lined throughout with moss and flowers. Amongst those who followed were—Captain Otway Mayne; Mr. H. P. Fane, Fulbeck; Mr. W. Fane, Melbourne; Colonel and Mrs. F. Fane, Fulbeck; Miss M. Fane; Captain the Hon. L. Fortescue, 17th Lancers; Mr. Percy Wormald, late 17th Lancers; Major Robertson, late 17th Lancers; Mr. G. Fellows, Nottingham; Captain Sherbrook; Miss Wilson, Ranceby; Mrs. C. Alexander, Earl Manvers, Lord Newark, Major and Lady Maud Rolleston, Mr. J. Lumley (Rufford), Mr. Cecil Foljambe, General Warrand, Mr. E. W. Wordsworth, Mr. E. Wright (Ollerton), Mr. J. T. Bullivant, Mr. G. Pinder, the house servants, and the committee of the Edwinstowe Conservative Association, of which the deceased was vice-president. The wreaths and crosses, numbering upwards of 50, were received from the following:—The three young sons of the deceased, who are staying at Bournemouth, Mrs. Mayne, Captain Mayne, Mrs. Fane Alexander, servants at Edwinstowe and Harley-street, Miss Mayne, Miss Amy Mayne, Capt. and Mrs. Isherwood, Major and Lady Maud Rolleston, Miss M. Fane, the Hon. Major and Mrs. J. Pleydell Pouverie, Mr. and Mrs. G. Fellows, tenants at Upavon, Miss Ganz, the Rev. and Mrs. Windle, Miss Alexander, Mrs. R. #### EDWINSTOWE.

DEATH OF MR. AND MRS. GEORGE MORLEY.— Mr. George Morley, shoeing and general jobbing smith, 72 years of age, died at his residence, Edwinstowe, on Friday morning, about one o'clock, and his wife, Mrs. Mary Ann Morley, expired about eighteen hours afterwards—at about seven in the evening, aged 73 years. Mrs. Morley had been suffering for a long time, and it is supposed the shock at the death of her husband and his removal down stairs hastened her end. Mr. and Mrs. Morley have lived in Edwinstowe a great number of years, and were very highly respected by all who knew them. Mr. Morley was a Churchman and Conservative, while Mrs. Morley was a member of the Primitive Methodist denomination, each ardently supporting their own cause. The old gentleman was a strong supporter of cricket, and his sons are well-known in the cricket world. Some years ago they took their places in a Notts. colts' match. Mrs. Morley was one of those genuinely good women, of whom, thank goodness, there are still some left, hospitable, kind hearted; a good wife, and a good mother. The funeral took place on Monday, and was a sight which will never be forgotten. The two coffins were borne side by side through the village street by twelve bearers, eight for Mr. and four for Mrs. Morley. The chief mourners were the sons of the deceased and near relatives, and the mournful cortege was followed to the Church by about 40 tradesmen and others, walking two-a-breast, who were desirous of paying this last tribute of respect. The sacred edifice was more crowded than any of those present can remember it having been before. The beautiful service of the Church of England was most impressively performed by the vicar, the Rev. H. T. Hayman. The service was fully choral, Mr. Thompson, who presided at the organ giving a fine rendering of the "Dead March" as the procession entered the Church. The choir was also present, and the hymns sung were "When our heads are bowed with woe," "Thy will be done," and "Art thou weary, art thou languid." Amongst the wreaths deposited on the coffin were those from the family, Miss Girkin (Eakring), Thoresby Park, Mrs. Cartledge (Rufford), Mr. Wardell, Mr. P. Morley, and Miss Simpson. On Sunday next the Vicar will preach a funeral sermon. M. & N. Notts. Advertiser Fri 17 Feb 1893

It is a rare occurrence that two old people, who have lived and loved together many years, as man and wife, die within a few hours of each other. Such, however, was the case at Edwinstowe, last week, with Mr. and Mrs. Morley both highly esteemed residents in the village. The scene at the grave was a most impressive one, and will never be forgotten by those who saw the sad event. A similar case was, curiously enough reported in a neighbouring town last week, only in this case one died three or four days after the other. M. & N. Notts. Advertiser Fri 17 Feb 1893

DEATH OF AN OLD RESIDENT.—On Saturday last, Mrs. Ann Marston, wife of Mr. Marston, grocer, died after a short but painful illness. Mrs. Marston was a highly-esteemed and old resident of Edwinstowe. She has for a considerable time been in delicate health, and has undergone severe family loss and personal suffering. As a wife, a mother, and a friend, Mrs. Marston was held in high esteem by all who had the privilege of knowing her. She was of an eminently cheerful disposition, and set a bright example to those around her by the christian fortitude with which she bore her many trials. Her loss will be greatly felt.—Mrs. Marston was 75 years old at the time of her death. The interment took place on Monday, at Edwinstowe Church. The service was a choral one, the Rev. H. T. Hayman, the vicar, officiating. Mr. T. J. Thompson was at the organ, and the choir very sweetly rendered "When our hearts," and "Thy will be done." Amongst the mourners were—Mr. R. W. Marston, Mr. T. Marston, and two grandsons, Miss Oldham (sister of deceased), Mr. Marston (London), and Mr. Oldham (Gainsboro). As the procession passed through the village, every signs of sympathy and respect was shown. A number of persons had come from a distance to pay a last tribute to the deceased. Many beautiful wreaths were sent amongst others, from Mrs. and Misses Towle, Nottingham; Mr. Oldham, Gainsboro; Mrs.

EDWINSTOWE.

DEATH OF OLD RESIDENTS.—We regret to record this week the death of two very old residents of Edwinstowe—Mr. Richard Westland Marston, aged 74 years, and Mr. James Mitchell, aged 84 years. Mr. Marston has for a great number of years been a well-known tradesman, and until a short time ago the postmaster of the village. He has been in ill-health for a considerable time, but has been able to get about his business. Indeed, he was a man who, unless he was at business, was uncomfortable. His death occurred on the 2nd inst., and his well-known face will be missed by numbers of people both on this and the other side of Edwinstowe. He was a Churchman and a strong Conservative, always taking an active and energetic part in promoting Conservatism in and around Edwinstowe and Ollerton. MARSTON. 32-1894.

EDWINSTOWE. PARISH COUNCIL.

PARISH COUNCILS.—The first meeting was held on the 13th, and was of a stormy character owing to the great desire of a section of the minority to govern the proceedings. All the councillors were present. Three gentlemen proposed as chairman. Mr. Rolleston, who was proposed by Mr. A. Naish, and seconded by Rev. H. T. Hayman; Mr. Rodgers, proposed by Mr. Freeman and seconded by Mr. Holmes. After a stormy discussion Mr. Rolleston proposed Mr. Freeman, withdrawing his own candidature, this was proposed by Mr. W. C. Wagstaffe, and on the withdrawal of Mr. Rodgers' nomination, carried unanimously. Mr. Naish proposed, and Mr. Hayman seconded, Mr. Hook as treasurer, but the motion was withdrawn. The Rev. H. T. Hayman was proposed and seconded by Mr. Rolleston and Mr. Naish as vice-chairman, but withdrawn. Mr. Symonds proposed, and Mr. Holmes seconded, and it was carried unanimously that Mr. Charlton be vice-chairman and treasurer with custody of parish documents. Mr. Hayman proposed and Mr. Rolleston seconded Mr. W. J. Curtis as clerk to the Council, but a member of the Council, Mr. H. D. Freeman, jun., was proposed by Mr. Low, seconded by Mr. Symonds, and appointed. To replace the Churchwardens on the Charities, Mr. W. C. Wagstaffe was proposed and seconded by Mr. Naish and Mr. Fletcher, and Mr. Rolleston was proposed and seconded by Mr. Hayman and Mr. Naish, and appointed. The next meeting of the Council was fixed for the first Thursday in February, and the meeting concluded, having lasted about 2½ hours, the question of the chairmanship alone occupying three quarters of an hour.
